

641—93.7(135) Process for appeal. A person aggrieved by a department decision may, within 30 days of receipt of the decision, appeal the decision by submitting a written appeal to the department which states the reason for the appeal. Within 60 days of receipt of the appeal, the department shall review the application and any additional information submitted. If the department finds that each of the standards for approval has been satisfied, the department shall approve the curriculum. If the standards for approval have not been met, the department shall deny the curriculum. The department shall provide a written explanation of the reasons for the approval or denial of approval. This decision is the final action of the department and shall be considered final agency action for purposes of judicial review. The appeal review process is not a contested case proceeding as that term is defined in Iowa Code chapter 17A.
